Part 4: Using information ethically and legally

Intellectual Property

Copyright – original idea in any format
Patent – invention for use, design, or plant
Trademark – unique name, symbol, image
Trade secret – instead of patent

Copyright policy
As a user of the intellectual property of others, your responsibility:

- Proper acknowledgement with citations
- Awareness of fair use policy of your institution
- Survey of patent literature when considering an invention